

DANNY FABER

BIOGRAPHY

"Within 12 hours, the confetti spread throughout the entire club, after 24 hours, across the entire city and, in the next 48 hours, thanks to Easyjet, across all of Europe."

DANNY FABER IN THE MOVIE "BAR 25 – TAGE AUSSERHALB DER ZEIT"

Danny Faber, a visionary and pioneer of the Berlin club scene, founded the legendary Bar25 club in the 2000s, which became a source of inspiration for an entire techno generation. The peak of this era was reached in 2012 with the debut of the feature film "BAR25 – Days Out of Time".

In the same spirit, Danny founded the label Bar 25 Music in 2006 and later the sub-labels Sounds Of Sirin and TalkTalk Records, which feature renowned artists such as Acid Pauli, Nu and Oliver Koletzki.

After the closure of Bar25, he opened the Chalet Club in Berlin-Kreuzberg, a techno club in a unique location with an experimental music program, which quickly became an internationally renowned meeting place for artists and music lovers.

Since 2016, Danny Faber has focused mainly on managing his music labels. His love for DJing remains unbroken. With over 25 years of experience, he is still regularly on the decks and electrifies audiences with his dynamic and unique musical style.
